

The Bondian Cold War: The Transnational Legacies of a Cold War Icon 20-21 June 2019, Tallinn University.

Organisers: Dr Muriel Blaive (Institute for the Study of Totalitarian Regimes), Dr Martin D. Brown (Tallinn University), Dr Karsten Brüggemann (Tallinn University) & Dr Ronald Granieri (University of Pennsylvania).

Room M225: Mare Building School of Humanities, Tallinn University, Uus-Sadama 5, 10120 Tallinn, Estonia.

Day One Thursday 20th June

10:30-11am - Coffee and registration

11:00am - Keynote Speech: Gill Bennett (Former Chief Historian Foreign & Commonwealth Office) 'Beyond Bond: Disinformation, Espionage and Geopolitics'

11:45am - First Panel / speakers

11:50am - M. D. Brown (Tallinn) Taking the Bondian Cold War Seriously

12:15pm - R. Granari (Uni Pennsylvania) 'Bond Re:Bourne: Transatlantic Translations of Espionage Heroism.'

12:40pm - M. Blaive (USTR, Prague)

1:30pm - Lunch

2:30pm - Second panel C. Moran (Uni of Warwick) "The Secret Life of Ian Fleming: Spies, Lies, and Social Ties"

2:55pm - J. Oldham (Uni of Hull) 'No James Bonds in this business': Covert Action at the End of Détente in The Sandbaggers (ITV, 1978-80)

3: 40pm - Coffee Break

4:10pm - R. Forgal (Uni of Haifa) 'Reflections of a Mossad agent on the realities of Bond'
Plus Q&A with ex-Mossad agent Avner Avraham

Day Two

Friday 21st June

10:30am - Coffee

11:00am - First Panel Via Skype: Dr Monica Germanà (Uni of Westminster) 'That would not be kulturny': Fashion at the Time of Socialism

11:35am - Dr T. Amar (Koç Uni) Secretive Affinities and Public Censure: Two TV Spy Heroes of the Cold War East and James Bond

12:30pm - Lunch

1:30pm- T. Prorokova (Uni of Vienna) Cinematic Reimagining of the Cold War in the 2010s

1:55pm - A. Saarien (Tallinn) From China with... Love? Changes in China's role in James Bond

2:30pm - Coffee

3:00pm - Screening of 'Dead Season (Myortvyy sezon)' 1968 directed by Savva Kulish with an introduction by Dr Karsten Brüggemann

The schedule will include Twitter conference papers, via #BondianColdWar @BondianCW

European Union
Regional Development Fund

Investing in your future

This conference is supported by the (European Union) European Regional Development Fund (Tallinn University's ASTRA project, activity A7).